

New Store Opening!

The exciting opening of Lilly's Boutique

This week a new store will be opening on 30th street. This new store will be a clothing store called Lilly's Boutique. This clothing boutique has been rising from the amount of popularity it has been receiving. The boutique will be opening on the 17th of July.

People seem to be excited over the fact that the boutique will be opening. As stated before recently the store has been getting lots of attention because of the unique high fashion they sell. Many of their clothing has been worn by celebrities therefore, the popularity and attention the store is getting is reasonable. The boutique includes clothing for both men and women. The boutique has been very popular among teens as they see their favorite celebrities wearing clothing from the boutique. The clothing sold is on trend which makes many teens wanting to buy from the store.

I am excited for the store to be opening in our town! I am hoping to purchase many items from Lilly's Boutique! says Emily.

The boutique will be hiring as well, with the pay at $19.75 an hour for full time employees and $15.90 for part time employees. Applications can be found on their website coming soon or you can call at (262)649-2983. Store hours will be from 10 a.m to 9 p.m. on Monday through Saturday and the store will be closed on Sundays.
